APPENDIX 5: SUPPLIER AND SUB-CONTRACTOR CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Suppliers and sub-contractors are evaluated beyond the basis of economic criteria and basic procurement regulations alone. The Beneficiaries and Implementing Bodies also look closely at labour practices, health and safety, environmental protection, taxation and full compliance with human rights as well as ethical conduct, anti-discrimination and anti-corruption policies. This Supplier and Sub-Contractor Code of Conduct captures the principles that every potential supplier is expected to uphold. All suppliers and subcontractors of the Rail Baltica project are subject to this Code of Conduct, and shall be expected to comply with these best market practices.

2. Suppliers who wish to do business within Rail Baltica project, are required to comply with this Supplier Code of Conduct and are required not to commit any crime, offence or misconduct due to which they could be excluded from participation in the procurement procedures in accordance with the relevant applicable national legislation which transposes the Directives 2014/24/EU and 2014/25/EU.

3. Moreover, suppliers who wish to do business within Rail Baltica project, are required to accept and comply with the following principles:

   NOTE: Contracting Authorities in the meaning of this Appendix 5 are the respective Beneficiaries and/or Implementing Bodies and/or RB Rail AS in charge of the particular procurement exercises and/or management of the subsequent contracts.

1. Labour:

   (a) Freedom of Association and Collective Bargaining: Contracting Authorities expect their suppliers to respect the freely-exercised right of workers, without distinction, to organise, further and defend their interests and to bargain collectively, as well as to protect those workers from any action or other form of discrimination related to the exercise of their right to organise, to carry out trade union activities and to bargain collectively.

   (b) Forced or Compulsory Labour: Contracting Authorities expect their suppliers not to use and to prohibit forced or compulsory labour in all its forms, including but not limited to not employ people against their own free will, nor to require people to lodge ‘deposits’ or identity papers upon commencing employment.

   (c) Child Labour: Contracting Authorities expect their suppliers not to employ: (a) children below 15 years of age or, if higher than that age, the minimum age of employment permitted by the law of the country or countries where the performance, in whole or in part, of a contract takes place, or the age of the end of compulsory schooling in that country or countries, whichever is higher; and (b) persons under the age of 18 for work that, by its nature or the circumstances in which it is carried out, is likely to harm the health, safety or morals of such persons.

   (d) Discrimination: Contracting Authorities expect their suppliers to ensure equality of opportunity and treatment in respect of employment and occupation without discrimination on grounds of race, colour, sex, religion, political opinion, national extraction or social origin and such other ground as may be recognised under the national law of the country or countries where the performance, in whole or in part, of a contract takes place.

24 These principles are set out in the ILO fundamental Conventions, No. 87, Freedom of Association and Protection of the Right to Organise, 1948 and No. 98, Right to Organise and Collective Bargaining, 1949.

25 This principle is set out in the ILO fundamental conventions, No. 29, Forced Labour, 1930 and No. 105, Abolition of Forced Labour, 1957.

26 These principles are set out in the ILO fundamental Conventions, No. 138, Minimum Age, 1973 and No. 182, Worst Forms of Child Labour, 1999 and in the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child.

27 These principles are set out in the ILO fundamental Conventions, No. 100, Equal Remuneration, 1951 and No. 111, Discrimination (Employment and Occupation), 1958.
(e) Wages, Working Hours and Other Conditions of Work: Contracting Authorities expect their suppliers to ensure the payment of wages in legal fashion, at regular intervals no longer than one month, in full and directly to the workers concerned. Suppliers should keep an appropriate record of such payments. Deductions from wages are permitted only under conditions and to the extent prescribed by the applicable law, regulations or collective agreement, and suppliers should inform the workers concerned of such deductions at the time of each payment. The wages, hours of work and other conditions of work provided by suppliers should be not less favourable than the best conditions prevailing locally (i.e., as contained in: (i) collective agreements covering a substantial proportion of employers and workers; (ii) arbitration awards; or (iii) applicable laws or regulations), for work of the same character performed in the trade or industry concerned in the area where work is carried out.\(^\text{28}\)

(f) Health and Safety: Contracting Authorities expect their suppliers to ensure that: (a) the workplaces, machinery, equipment and processes under their control are safe and without risk to health; (b) the chemical, physical and biological substances and agents under their control are without risk to health when the appropriate measures of protection are taken; and (c) where necessary, adequate protective clothing and protective equipment are provided to prevent risk of accidents or of adverse effects to health.\(^\text{29}\)

(g) Traffic Management: Contracting Authorities expect their suppliers to respect the needs of affected communities and when delivering works/services/supplies to manage their access to physical locations in the least disruptive and in a controlled manner so as to not cause excessive inconvenience/disruption to local inhabitants.

2. Human Rights:

(a) Human Rights: Contracting Authorities expect their suppliers to support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights and to ensure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses.\(^\text{30}\)

(b) Harassment, Harsh or Inhumane Treatment: Contracting Authorities expect their suppliers to create and maintain an environment that treats all employees with dignity and respect and will not use any threats of violence, sexual exploitation or abuse, verbal or psychological harassment or abuse. No harsh or inhumane treatment coercion or corporal punishment of any kind is tolerated, nor is there to be the threat of any such treatment.

3. Environment:

(a) Environmental: Contracting Authorities expect their suppliers to have an effective environmental policy and to comply with existing legislation and regulations regarding the protection of the environment. Suppliers should wherever possible support a precautionary approach to environmental matters, undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility and encourage the diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies implementing sound life-cycle practices.

(b) Chemical and Hazardous Materials: Chemical and other materials posing a hazard if released to the environment are to be identified and managed to ensure their safe handling, movement, storage, recycling or reuse and disposal.

\(^\text{30}\) These principles are derived from Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) and are set out in the United Nations Global Compact (see http://www.unglobalcompact.org/Issues/human_rights/index.html).
(c) Wastewater and Solid Waste: Wastewater and solid waste generated from operations, industrial processes and sanitation facilities are to be monitored, controlled and treated as required prior to discharge or disposal.

(d) Air Emissions: Air emissions of volatile organic chemicals, aerosols, corrosives, particulates, ozone depleting chemicals and combustion by-products generated from operations are to be characterised, monitored, controlled and treated as required prior to discharge or disposal.

(e) Minimize Waste, Maximize Recycling: Waste of all types, including water and energy, are to be reduced or eliminated at the source or by practices such as modifying production, maintenance and facility processes, materials substitution, conservation, recycling and reusing materials.

(f) Noise: Contracting Authorities expect their suppliers to respect local communities and refrain from producing excessive noise whenever possible and to provide advance notification to local communities’ members in cases where it is unavoidable to produce excessive noise for a temporary period of time.

4. Ethical conduct:

(a) Corruption: Contracting Authorities have a “zero tolerance” policy towards bribery and corruption in any form, including fraud, bribery and extortion in the conduct of business. Contracting Authorities expect their suppliers to adhere to the highest standards of moral and ethical conduct, to respect local laws and not engage in any form of corrupt practices, including but not limited to extortion, fraud, or bribery.

(b) Conflict of Interest: Suppliers are expected to disclose to Contracting Authorities (a) any situation that may appear as a conflict of interest, such as but not limited to: where a supplier or an undertaking related to the supplier has advised a Contracting Authority or has otherwise been involved in the preparation of the procurement procedure; and (b) if any Contracting Authorities’ official, professional under contract with Contracting Authorities or subcontractor may have a direct or indirect interest of any kind in the supplier’s business or any kind of economic ties with the supplier.

(c) Gifts and Hospitality: Contracting Authorities have a “zero tolerance” policy and do not accept any type of gift or any offer of hospitality. Contracting Authorities will not accept any invitations to sporting or cultural events, offers of holidays or other recreational trips, transportation, or invitations to lunches or dinners at the cost of suppliers. Contracting Authorities expect their suppliers not to offer any benefit such as free goods or services, employment or sales opportunity to a Contracting Authorities’ staff member in order to facilitate the suppliers’ business with Contracting Authorities.

(d) Post-employment restrictions: National legislation may set post-employment restrictions to the Contracting Authorities’ staff in service and former Contracting Authorities’ staff members who participated in the procurement process, if such persons had prior professional dealings with suppliers. Contracting Authorities’ suppliers are expected to refrain from offering employment to any such person for a period of 2 (two) years following separation from service.

5. Selection of business partners and own suppliers

(a) Adoption and compliance with the principles: Contracting Authorities expect that their suppliers will promote the adoption of the principles set forth in this document by their potential business partners and promote the implementation of the principles set forth in this document towards own suppliers.

(b) Eligibility of own suppliers: Contracting Authorities expect that their suppliers shall not procure goods, works and services from other suppliers who are non-compliant with this Supplier and Sub-Contractor Code of Conduct. All suppliers shall be free from violations of insolvency, bribery, or any infringement of competition rights, a horizontal cartel agreement or tax debts.

4. In addition, suppliers who wish to do business within the Rail Baltica project, are expected to comply with the minimum qualification requirements set in Appendix 2 above.
