- 3.2.1. The Client has the right to request and to receive information on the course of the Services from the Contractor within 3 (three) business days from the request.
- 3.2.2. The Client has the right to invite the Contractor no more often than once per 2 (two) weeks to provide information on the progress of the Services with the purpose to establish further actions and discuss any unclear matters.
- 3.2.3. The Client may carry out technical, legal and financial checks and audits of the Contractor and the sub-contractors of the Contractor, and on-the-spot visits to the sites and premises where the activities related to the implementation of this Contract are or were carried out after giving a written notice 5 (five) business days in advance, or in case of an unannounced check or audit or on-the-spot-visit without an advance notice. Checks and audits and on-the-spot visits may be carried out either directly by the authorized staff of the Client or by any other outside body authorised to do so on its behalf.
- 3.2.4. The Client is obliged to pay for the Services in accordance with the signed Acts of Acceptance and pursuant to the invoices from the Contractor.
- 3.2.5. The Client is obliged to provide all and any information to the Contractor, which it requires for the completion of the Services and which is permissible to provide pursuant to Latvian law, as well as taking into account security requirements and to perform all other obligations stipulated in this Contract.

4. THE ACCEPTANCE OF THE SERVICES

- 4.1. The Acceptance of the Services takes place in accordance with Annex 3 "Technical Specifications" of the Annex A "Procurement Regulations" (hereinafter "Contracting authority" in Annex 3 "Technical Specifications" to the Procurement Regulations shall be referred to as the "Client") and the Contractor's proposal, by signature of a specifically prepared Act of Acceptance. The Act of Acceptance is prepared by the Contractor and signed by the Client and the Contractor. The Act of Acceptance shall contain information on the amount of Services done. The relevant Deliverable, which should have been delivered until the date of the relevant Act of Acceptance, shall be attached to it as an attachment. After the Act of Acceptance has been signed by the Client and the Contractor, it becomes an integral part of this Contract.

- 4.2. If the Client finds the Services to have faults and to be non-compliant with the terms of this Contract, the Client does not sign the Act of Acceptance. In such case the Client shall return the Act of Acceptance to the Contractor together with a statement of the reasons for refusal to accept the relevant Deliverable and the guidelines for remedying them.
- 4.3. The Contractor is obliged to correct at its own expense the faults in the Services within the deadline and according to the guidelines indicated in the Act of Acceptance. After correcting the faults, the Contractor submits the Services again, according to the provisions of this Contract.
- 4.4. If faults or errors are discovered in parts of the Services already accepted by earlier Acts of Acceptance these must be corrected and the amendments must be submitted with the next Act of Acceptance.
- 4.5. The Contractor shall immediately warn the Client in writing about circumstances that may affect the quality of the Services, the deadlines or the Contract Price and submit an impact assessment, but no later than within 5 (five) business days from the time when the Contractor learned or should have learned about such conditions.
- 4.6. The Contractor shall not be eligible for an increase in the Contract Price if the Contractor has not informed the Client in the appropriate time-period of the circumstances mentioned in the preceding Section.

5. THE CONTRACTOR AND THE CLIENT'S PERSONNEL

- 5.1. To provide the Services the Contractor shall involve key experts indicated in the Contractor's proposal who have the required qualifications listed in Annex A to the Procurement Regulation and, if needed, a sufficient number of other specialists as outlined in Annex 3 "Technical Specification" to the Procurement Regulation (Annex A).
- 5.2. The Contractor shall be responsible for the work of its staff and ensure that the Client has free access to the staff during the Client's working hours. The Contractor shall ensure that the key experts indicated in the Contractor's proposal participate in meetings with the Client upon Client's request.
- 5.3. The Client must approve replacement of the key experts indicated in the Contractor's proposal. The qualifications of the proposed key experts must be equivalent to or higher than the qualifications of the replaced expert, and the work load must be at least the same as indicated in the Contractor's proposal (Annex B).
- 5.4. The Contractor must replace every staff member involved in the performance of the Services (including key experts mentioned in the Contractor's proposal (Annex B), or replacement personnel), if requested by the Client and supported by any of the following reasons:
 - 5.4.1. repeated careless performance of duties;
 - 5.4.2. incompetence or negligence;
 - 5.4.3. non-fulfilment of obligations or duties stipulated in the Contract;
 - 5.4.4. termination of employment relations with the Contractor.
- 5.5. The Client shall approve or reject the replacement of key experts indicated in the Contractor's proposal as soon as possible, but no later than within 5 (five) business days after the receipt of all information and documents necessary for a decision in accordance with the provisions in this Contract.

6. SUBCONTRACTORS

- 6.1. The Contractor shall be responsible for the work of sub-contractors.
- 6.2. To complete the Services, the Contractor shall involve subcontractors indicated in the Contractor's proposal.
- 6.3. If the Contractor wishes to change a subcontractor who is indicated in the Contractor's proposal as a subcontractor with a work-load share of 10 (ten) per cent or more of the total Contract value (if the Contractor has not relied on the capabilities of the given subcontractor in its proposal in order to prove the Contractor's suitability pursuant to the Regulation) or to involve a new sub-contractor whose work-load share is 10 (ten) per cent of the total Contract value or more, then a written application must be submitted to the Client and written consent must be obtained. The Client agrees to the change of a subcontractor or the involvement of a new subcontractor if the proposed subcontractors do not meet the exclusion criteria defined in the first and second paragraph of the Public Procurement Law, Section 42.
- 6.4. The subcontractor, upon whose capabilities the Contractor was relying on in the Procurement in order to certify the compliance of its qualification to the requirements stipulated in the Procurement Regulation, can be changed only with prior permission by the Client if the proposed subcontractor has the qualifications complying with the requirements stipulated in the Procurement Regulation and if the proposed subcontractors does not meet the exclusion criteria defined in the first and second paragraph of the Public Procurement Law, Section 42.
- 6.5. The Client decides to approve or reject the change in the Contractor's subcontractors or the involvement of new subcontractors as soon as possible, but no later than within 5 (five) business days after the receipt of all information and documents necessary for a decision in accordance with this Contract.

7. CONTRACTUAL PENALTIES AND COMPENSATION OF DAMAGES

- 7.1. If the Client delays the Contractual payments, then the Client shall pay a penalty of 0.2 (zero point two) per cent of the delayed payment for each day of delay, but not more than 10 (ten) per cent of the total outstanding amount.
- 7.2. If the Contractor does not comply with a deadline for submission of Services determined in the Contract or does not conform with the time limits set for correcting faults and errors made, the Contractor shall pay a penalty of 0.2 (zero point two) per cent of the Contract Price for each day of delay, but not more than 10 (ten) per cent of the total Contract Price.
- 7.3. In case of a unilateral termination of this Contract, not related to non-performance or improper performance of the Contract, a termination penalty of 10 (ten) per cent of the Contract Price is to be paid by the initiator of the termination.
- 7.4. If the Contractor fails to perform other obligations set in this Contract, then the Contractor shall pay a penalty of 0.5 (zero point five) per cent of the Contract Price for each of the identified cases, but the total penalty amount may not exceed 10 (ten) per cent of the Contract Price.
- 7.5. The Contractor shall reimburse the Client any contractual penalties and damages; the Client may deduct this amount from any sums payable to the Contractor pursuant to the Contract.
- 7.6. The Contractor shall be entitled to claim compensation for damages from the Client, respectively, in the following cases:
 - 7.6.1. The Client unjustifiably does not approve the change of personnel and/or subcontractors;

- 7.6.2. in other cases where the Contractor has incurred losses due to the Client's fault.
- 7.7. The Contractor shall compensate damages to the Client in the following cases:
 - 7.7.1. the Contractor has not corrected the errors or faults within the time period set by the Client;
 - 7.7.2. in other cases where the Client has incurred losses due to the Contractor's fault.
- 7.8. In order to qualify for receiving compensation the Parties shall warn each other in advance of occurrence of situations causing damages,
- 7.9. Payment of the contractual penalty shall not release the Parties from performance of obligations.

8. AMENDING THE CONTRACT

- 8.1. The Contract can be amended in compliance with the provisions of Article 61 of the Public Procurement Law.
- 8.2. If after the conclusion of the Contract amendments are made to the existing laws and regulations and in consequence the costs of Contractor's Services increase or decrease and when a prior warning has been given, then, after a mutual agreement by the Parties, the Contract Price is amended.
- 8.3. Amendments to the Contract are proposed by the Party who sees a need for the amendments by submitting a justification for the proposal of amendments.
- 8.4. Amendments and supplements to the Contract shall be valid only when they have been prepared in writing and signed by the Parties; they shall be enclosed to this Contract and become an integral part of it.
- 8.5. The Contractor shall be entitled to an extension of the deadline for performing the Services if:
 - 8.5.1. The Client prevents or stops the execution of Services due to circumstances outside of the Contractor's control;
 - 8.5.2. The execution of Services has been hampered by significant amendments to this Contract or its Annexes, which have not been caused by the Contractor.
- 8.6. When deciding on amending the Contract, compliance with Public Procurement Law of the Republic of Latvia, Procurement and requirements under its Regulation must be ensured.

9. TERM AND VALIDITY OF THE CONTRACT

- 9.1. The Contract shall enter into force on the date of signature and shall be valid until the full execution of the commitments made.
- 9.2. The Contractor has the right to unilaterally terminate the Contract if:
 - 9.2.1. the Client does not make the necessary payments for accepted Services and the Contractual penalty-reaches 10 (ten) per cent of the outstanding amount;
 - 9.2.2. the Client is declared insolvent, its business activities are suspended or terminated, legal proceedings have been initiated on the Client's bankruptcy or it is established that the Client will be liquidated by the time of the Contract's expiry.
- 9.3. The Client has the right to unilaterally terminate the Contract if:

- 9.3.1. the Deliverables are not submitted within 30 (thirty) days after the submission deadline for each Deliverable or if the Contractor has not corrected the errors and faults within the Client's prescribed time period;
- 9.3.2. the Contractor's Contractual penalty reaches 10 (ten) per cent of the Contract Price;
- 9.3.3. the Contractor has been declared insolvent, its business activities are suspended or terminated, legal proceedings have been initiated on the Contractor's bankruptcy or it is established that the Contractor will be liquidated by the time of the Contract's expiry;
- 9.3.4. the Contractor fails to perform key expert replacement according to the procedure prescribed in this Contract and has not rectified this breach of the Contract within 10 (ten) business days after receiving a warning from the Client;
- 9.3.5. if the Contractor fails to comply with the restrictions on professional activities laid down in this Contract.
- 9.4. If the Client has unilaterally terminated the Contract due to non-fulfilment of the obligations undertaken in the Contract by the Contractor, the Client has the right within 12 (twelve) months from the date of the termination of the Contract to disqualify the Contractor from participation in any tenders organized by the Client.
- 9.5. The Contract is terminated if the performance of the Contract is made impossible or difficult due to a force majeure.
- 9.6. By a mutual written agreement, the Parties may terminate the Contract for any other reason.
- 9.7. If any of the provisions of the Contract become void, it shall not affect other provisions of the Contract.

10. COPYRIGHT

- 10.1. The copyright of all the copyrighted works created within the Services is transferred to the Client on an ongoing basis, i.e. immediately after the completion of a part of the Services that falls under the concept of a "work" under Copyright Law of the Republic of Latvia, without the need to deliver or present the respective part of the Services to the Client. Copyright is transferred in the maximum extent permitted by law. The copyright fee has been included in the Contract Price. Simultaneously with the transfer of copyright to the Client, the Contractor automatically receives a non-exclusive licence for the use of the respective works in the extent necessary for the further performance of the Contract, including the right to alter and reproduce the respective works. The Contractor may sublicense the respective licence only to persons used by it to perform the Contract and only to the extent necessary for the performance of the Contract. The transfer of copyrights shall also remain valid if the Contract is prematurely terminated for any reason and/or terminated without the complete delivery of the Services.
- 10.2. Along with the delivery of the economic rights stipulated above, the Contractor shall also grant to the Client, on an ongoing basis, an exclusive licence, which shall be without a term, in the maximum extent permitted by law, and without any territorial or temporal limits and with the right of granting sublicenses, for the use of the moral rights extended to the works created within the Services, and waive any right towards the Client to demand that the use of the respective works was terminated. The fee for the licence and the right provided above has been included in the Contract Price. The Contractor shall have no right to extraordinarily cancel this licence agreement for the use of the moral rights of an author concluded under this Section for an unspecified term.
- 10.3. The Client has the right to publish material submitted by the Contractor without the Contractor's permission, as well as to require the Contractor to change it, to redo it, to divide it into parts. If the Contractor and the Client cannot agree on the execution of this work, the Client is entitled to involve another Contractor in carrying out the said task.

10.4. The Contractor shall undertake to ensure that the Services, the execution of Services or the use of the Study delivered as a result of rendered Services does not violate the rights, including copyright, of third persons.

10.5. If the Services, the execution of the Services or the use of the Study or other deliverables produced while rendering the Services violate the rights of third persons, the Contractor shall be liable for the violation. The Contractor shall be obliged to compensate the damage caused to third persons and satisfy for the Client any claims for the compensation of damage filed against the Client by third persons.

11. CONFIDENTIALITY AND PROFESSIONAL RESTRICTIONS

11.1. The Contractor agrees that any information ("Information") obtained in the course of fulfilment of the Contract will be considered as confidential.

11.2. The Contractor undertakes not to disclose without a prior written consent of the Client any Information obtained in the course of fulfilment of the Contract, save for the cases referred to in Section 11.4 of the Contract. This provision shall be applicable during the validity of the Contract, and shall remain effective also after the expiration or termination of the Contract.

11.3. The Contractor undertakes to provide Information to their employees only to the extent required for provision of the Services and due performance of the Contract. The Contractor ensures that its employees or other persons involved in the provision of the Services respect the provisions of confidentiality defined in the Contract. The Contractor shall be fully responsible for the damages caused to the Client due to the reveal of the Information to the third persons, disregarding whether the Information was revealed by the Contractor itself, its employees or by other persons involved in the provision of the Services.

11.4. The disclosure of the Information will not be considered a breach of the Contract if it is revealed due to the legislative requirements and in accordance with the provisions of the normative enactments or EU legislation, including the obligation of the Client to disclose the Contract terms to any authorities controlling spending of public funds.

11.5. The Contractor, if itself or through its engaged persons is in breach of the confidentiality obligation, shall compensate direct losses incurred by the Client.

11.6. During the validity of this Contract, the Contractor, as well as their staff, must not engage directly or indirectly in business, financial or professional activities that may affect the execution of Services specified in this Contract and the results of the procurement procedure.

11.7. The Contractor undertakes not to use any information or material or other kind of valuables for purposes other than the provision of the Services, e.g. use for commercial gain, use in any way to make it public, reproduce, etc.

12. FORCE MAJEURE

12.1. Parties are exempt from liability for full or partial non-compliance with the Contract if such failure is due to force majeure or extraordinary circumstances that began after the conclusion of the Contract and that could not have been previously foreseen or prevented. Force majeure or extraordinary circumstances include: natural disasters, including nature catastrophes, other disasters and accidents, epidemics, acts of war, strikes, internal unrest, blockades, as well as the adoption of such legislation that prevents all or one of the Parties to continue the fulfilment of the Contract, and other circumstances that do not fall within the Parties' possible control.

- 12.2. A Party who refers to the effect of force majeure or extraordinary circumstances, must immediately, but not later than within five (5) days, report these conditions in writing to other Parties. The report shall state the period within which, in its opinion the Contractual obligations may be performed and expected, and at the other Party's request, a notification issued by a competent authority must be submitted, containing a confirmation of the occurrence of force majeure event or exceptional circumstances, as well as their description. When the further execution of the Contract is not possible, the Parties shall draw up an Act of Acceptance and the Contractor shall receive payment for all of the properly performed part of the Services submitted. If the force majeure continues for more than one (1) month and the Parties are unable to agree on the further execution of the Contract, either Party has the right to unilaterally terminate the Contract by submitting a written notice to the other Parties.

13. RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES

- 13.1. Any disagreements arising between the Parties concerning performance of the liabilities as per the Contract shall be resolved by way of mutual negotiations. The agreement reached shall be documented in writing.
- 13.2. If no agreement is reached within 30 (thirty) days, the dispute shall be settled in the Court of the Republic of Latvia in accordance with regulatory enactments of the Republic of Latvia.
